Our Company

Greenlane Business

Founded in 2005, Greenlane is a premier global platform for the development and distribution of premium cannabis accessories, vape devices, and lifestyle products. In addition, it serves specialty retailers, smoke shops, head shops, convenience stores, and consumers directly through its own proprietary web stores and large online marketplaces such as Amazon.

Our Greenlane Brands include our more affordable product line – Groove, our premium smoke shop and ancillary product brand – Higher Standards, and our child-resistant packaging brand - Pollen Gear (the “Greenlane Brands”). In collaboration with our partner brands, Greenlane is strategically positioned to serve as a comprehensive one-stop shop for all buyers. We also have category-exclusive licenses for the premium Marley Natural branded products.

The Greenlane Brands, along with a curated set of third-party products, are offered to customers through our proprietary, owned and operated e-commerce platforms which include Wholesale.Greenlane.com, Vapor.com, PuffItUp.com, HigherStandards.com, and MarleyNaturalShop.com. Additionally, our presence on popular e-commerce platforms such as Amazon, Etsy, and eBay enable us to reach customers directly, providing them with valuable resources and a seamless purchasing experience.

We merchandise vaporizers, packaging, and other ancillary products in the United States, Canada, Europe, and Latin America. We distribute products to retailers through wholesale operations and distribute products to consumers through constantly evolving e-commerce activities. We operate our own distribution center in the United States, while also utilizing third-party logistics (“3PL”) locations in Canada. We made tremendous progress consolidating and streamlining our warehouse and distribution in 2023 and 2024, including the consolidations of our warehouse in Worcester, MA and 3PL location in Hebron, KY to our owned facility in Moreno Valley, California in 2023.

Greenlane offers a full spectrum of products, positioning us to meet all our customers’ growing demands. We focus on serving consumers across wholesale, retail, and e-commerce operations—offering all of our Greenlane Brands, as well as ancillary products and accessories from select leading third-party brands such as Storz and Bickel, Gpenco Science, PAX, Cookies, and more. Our direct-to-consumer channels form a central part of our growth strategy, especially as it relates to scaling our own portfolio of higher-margin proprietary owned brands. In addition we serve Cannabis Operators by providing ancillary products essential to their daily operations and growth, such as packaging and vaporization solutions, including our Greenlane Brand Pollen Gear.

Historically, we have experienced only moderate seasonality in the direct-to-consumer side of our business, particularly during the fourth quarter. This coincides with Cyber Monday (the first Monday after Thanksgiving, when online retailers typically offer holiday discounts), and as our customers build up their inventories in anticipation of the holiday season. We also have related promotional marketing campaigns during this period.

6. Product Innovation: We recently added several new product lines, including pet & wellness product lines, such as the Green Gruff, Safety Strips, and Swabtek lines.

Our BERA Treasury Strategy

Adoption of a BERA Treasury Policy

We have adopted a treasury policy (the "Treasury Policy") under which the principal holding in our treasury reserve on the balance sheet will be allocated to digital assets, of which our principal holding will be BERA, the native digital asset of the layer-1 blockchain protocol known as Berachain ("Berachain"). Our Board of Directors (the "Board") approved our new Treasury Policy on October 23, 2025, authorizing the long-term accumulation of BERA as a strategic corporate reserve asset. The Board has created a Digital Assets Committee comprised of Bruce Linton, our Chairman, and Billy Levy, our director, and chaired by Mr. Linton, to oversee our Treasury Policy. The Board also appointed Benjamin Isenberg as our Chief Investment Officer, who will manage our BERA treasury strategy.

In addition to operating our development and distribution of premium cannabis accessories, vape devices, and lifestyle products business, our management will focus its resources in accordance with the Treasury Policy and a significant portion of the balance sheet will be allocated to holding BERA in our digital asset treasury.

Currently our Treasury Policy is primarily dedicated to BERA, and we do not intend to allocate treasury assets to other digital assets at this time. As a result, our assets will be highly concentrated in a single digital asset. Adverse developments specific to BERA, its protocol, or its ecosystem could have a disproportionate impact on our financial condition and results of operations. To mitigate price risk, we may from time to time hedge our BERA exposure in whole or in part using a combination of call options, put options, total return swaps, futures, or other derivative instruments executed through regulated or institutional-grade counterparties. However, there can be no assurance that such hedging strategies will be available at favorable terms, executed without market impact, or sufficient to offset adverse price movements in BERA.

Our Treasury Policy is intended to bring value to our stockholders through the following:

- utilizing capital markets issuances, including the issuance of both equity and convertible debt, where we may issue capital to further our strategy under the Treasury Policy to purchase and hold more BERA;
- purchasing BERA, either through open market purchases, block trades, or other negotiated transactions, including both locked and unlocked BERA;
- actively participating in decentralized finance (“DeFi”) protocols and other onchain strategies, including staking and validator activities, as well as liquidity provisioning activities, to earn additional rewards and transform the treasury into a productive, revenue-generating asset;
- selling our BERA holdings, whether on the open market, through block trades, or other negotiated transactions, for various reasons and at various times, including, in order to generate cash flow, diversify our Treasury, or to repurchase shares of our Common Stock when our Board believes such activities will result in accretive value creation for our stockholders and at such times when it is legally permissible to do so.

Berachain and the Berachain Ecosystem

Berachain is a decentralized, open-source, EVM-compatible layer-1 blockchain engineered for high throughput, low latency, and full compatibility with Ethereum tooling, smart contracts, and infrastructure. This design enables seamless porting of Ethereum decentralized applications (“dApps”) and allows Berachain to adopt major Ethereum upgrades with minimal friction, providing developers immediate access to a growing, high-performance alternative network.

Berachain utilizes a novel proof of liquidity consensus mechanism (“PoL”) that integrates network security with active liquidity provisioning. The network revolves around three core participant groups:

- validators who are responsible for securing the network by proposing and attesting to new blocks in exchange for network rewards;
- users comprising of individuals and organizations that use Berachain for a variety of purposes (e.g., transferring value, interacting with dApps and participating in DeFi protocols); and
- developers worldwide who are contributing to the Berachain protocol by building dApps and creating new use cases for the network.

The PoL consensus model utilizes a dual-token model, each as described below:

- BERA is the native gas and staking token on the Berachain protocol. It is used to pay transaction fees and execute smart contracts. Validators stake BERA to participate in the PoL consensus mechanism, with the top 69 validators holding the highest staked amount of BERA forming the set of active validators eligible to earn block rewards.
- BGT is a non-transferable token on the Berachain protocol. It is emitted only to validators as part of block rewards and is earned solely through on-chain participation in PoL. Validators must stake BGT to specific dApps’ reward vaults in order to direct the allocation of future BGT emissions by the Berachain protocol. A dApp reward vault that receives delegated BGT may distribute that BGT to users in exchange for predefined actions, such as providing liquidity, executing trades, or interacting with protocol features. Any holder of BGT may burn it on a 1:1 basis to mint an equivalent amount of BERA.

Using these two tokens, PoL is designed to create a network incentive flywheel whereby validators stake BERA to secure the blockchain and earn BGT through block production, then stake or delegate BGT to dApps to direct future emissions. dApps in turn award BGT to users for liquidity provisioning or protocol usage, and users can burn BGT 1:1 for BERA.

BERA holders may stake their BERA tokens to participate in the PoL consensus mechanism. By staking BERA, participants contribute to network security, and earn yield from PoL incentive redirections, thereby reinforcing the economic foundation of the Berachain network.

Custody of BERA

We currently intend to self-custody our BERA, utilizing secure multi-party computational (“MPC”) wallets offered by Fireblocks, an institutional digital assets platform that allows users the ability to build custody workflows with embedded maker/checker steps, enforceable trade limits, and recovery capabilities. In light of the significant amount of BERA tokens we intend to accumulate, we expect to continually evaluate and implement self-custody best practices as well as, if deemed desirable, third-party digital asset custody solutions.

On-chain Activities

We intend to grow our BERA position over time, not only via purchases and acquisition but also via DeFi, staking and validator activities. Under our Treasury Policy, a portion of our BERA may be allocated to select DeFi protocols to generate additional returns. We also intend to delegate a portion of our BERA to Berachain’s native staking protocol for liquid BERA, through which we may earn rewards that can be redeployed into the Berachain ecosystem or used for general corporate purposes. Further, we may from time to time operate one or more validators to help secure the network. As a validator, we will be entitled to (1) earn gas fees and priority fees; (2) collect incentives provided by dApp and protocol developers for directing BGT rewards to their respective rewards vaults; and (3) receive a base block reward anytime we successfully propose a block.

Regulations

Depending on the regulatory characterization of BERA, the markets for cryptocurrency in general, and our activities in particular, our business and our BERA acquisition strategy may be subject to regulation by one or more regulators in the United States and globally. Ongoing and future regulatory actions may alter, to a materially adverse extent, the nature of digital assets markets, the participation of industry participants, including service providers and financial institutions in these markets, and our ability to pursue our BERA strategy in line with our Treasury Policy.

Governments around the world have reacted differently to digital assets; certain governments have deemed them illegal, and others have allowed their use and trade without restriction, while in some jurisdictions, such as the U.S., digital assets are subject to overlapping, uncertain and evolving regulatory requirements. For example, within the past few years:

- President Trump has signed an Executive Order instructing a working group comprised of representatives from key federal agencies to evaluate measures that can be taken to provide regulatory clarity and certainty built on technology-neutral regulations for individuals and firms involved in digital assets, including through well-defined jurisdictional regulatory boundaries, and this working group submitted a report with regulatory and legislative proposals on July 30, 2025;
- in January 2025, the SEC announced the formation of a “Crypto Task Force,” which was created to provide clarity on the application of the federal securities laws to the crypto asset market and to recommend policy measures with respect to digital asset security status, registration and listing of digital asset-based investment vehicles, and digital asset custody, lending and staking;

- in May 2025, the SEC issued a statement providing its view that certain staking activities on blockchain networks that use protocol staking activities do not involve the offer or sale of securities under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;
- in April and August 2024, Uniswap Labs and OpenSea, respectively, publicized that they had each received a Wells Notice from the SEC, notifying them that the SEC was planning to recommend legal action against them based on allegations that they operate as unregistered securities exchanges; however, in February 2025 each of Uniswap Labs and OpenSea announced that the SEC had closed their investigations without taking any enforcement action;
- in November 2023, Binance Holdings Ltd. and its then chief executive officer reached a settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the “CFTC”), the U.S. Department of Treasury’s Office of Foreign Asset Control, and the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (“FinCEN”) to resolve a multi-year investigation by the agencies and a civil suit brought by the CFTC, pursuant to which Binance agreed to, among other things, pay $4.3 billion in penalties across the four agencies and to discontinue its operations in the United States;
- the European Union adopted Markets in Crypto Assets Regulation, a comprehensive digital asset regulatory framework for the issuance and use of digital assets;
- in June 2023, the United Kingdom adopted and implemented the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023, which regulates market and promotional activities in “cryptoassets;” and
- in China, the People’s Bank of China and the National Development and Reform Commission have outlawed cryptocurrency trading activities and declared all cryptocurrency transactions illegal within the country.

As digital assets have grown in both popularity and market size, there has been increasing focus on the operations of digital asset networks, digital asset users and digital asset exchanges, with particular focus on the extent to which digital assets can be used to launder the proceeds of illegal activities, fund criminal or terrorist activities, or circumvent sanctions regimes, including those sanctions imposed in response to the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine. Many U.S. state, federal and international agencies have issued consumer advisories regarding the risks posed by digital assets to investors. In addition, federal and state agencies, and other countries have issued rules or guidance regarding the treatment of digital asset transactions and requirements for businesses engaged in activities related to digital assets. If we are found to have purchased or sold any of our BERA to or from bad actors that have used BERA to launder money or persons subject to sanctions, we may be subject to regulatory proceedings and any further transactions or dealings in BERA by us may be restricted or prohibited.

The CFTC takes the position that some digital assets fall within the definition of a “commodity” under the Commodities Exchange Act of 1936, as amended (the “CEA”). Under the CEA, the CFTC has broad enforcement authority to police market manipulation and fraud in spot digital assets markets in which we may transact. Beyond instances of fraud or manipulation, currently, the CFTC generally does not oversee cash or spot market exchanges or transactions involving digital asset commodities that do not utilize margin, leverage, or financing.

However, the U.S. Congress is contemplating multiple bills related to digital assets and the digital assets market, including by specifying the regulatory oversight authority for the applicable regulators and defining key concepts related to digital assets. In particular, the Digital Asset Market Clarity Act of 2025 (“Clarity Act”), previously passed by the U.S. House of Representatives, is expected to, if promulgated into law, define a digital asset that is intrinsically linked to and derives value from use in a blockchain system as a “digital commodity”, and provide for certain exclusions or exemptions for digital commodities from being treated or regulated as a “security.” Under the CLARITY Act, the CFTC will have primary regulatory oversight authority over spot digital commodities. Similarly, the Responsible Financial Innovation Act currently under discussions in the U.S. Senate would give the CFTC jurisdiction over any agreement, contract or transaction involving certain qualifying digital assets. Neither the CLARITY Act nor the Responsible Financial Innovation Act have been passed or signed into law, and will require further rules to be promulgated to implement. In addition, CFTC regulations and CFTC oversight and enforcement authority continue to apply with respect to futures, swaps, other derivative products and certain retail leveraged transactions involving digital assets,

Our activities involving BERA and other digital assets may fall within the jurisdiction of more than one financial regulator and various courts and such laws and regulations are rapidly evolving and increasing in scope.

Risks Related to This Offering

Resales of our Common Stock in the public market by our stockholders (including the Selling Stockholders) may cause the market price of our shares of Common Stock to fall.

Sales of a substantial number of shares of Common Stock could occur at any time, including sales by the Selling Stockholders under this prospectus. The issuance of new shares of Common Stock could result in resales of our shares of Common Stock by our current stockholders concerned about the potential ownership dilution of their holdings. In turn, these resales could have the effect of depressing the market price for our shares of Common Stock.

The price of our Common Stock has been and may continue to be volatile and fluctuate substantially, which could result in substantial losses for purchasers of our Common Stock.

Our stock price has been and is likely to continue to be volatile. The stock market in general has experienced extreme volatility that has often been unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies. With the adoption of our new Treasury Policy, we expect to see additional volatility.

As a result of this volatility, you may not be able to sell your Common Stock. The market price for our Common Stock may be influenced by many factors, including:

- our Treasury Policy;
- the success of competitive products, services or technologies;

- regulatory or legal developments in the United States and other countries;
- the recruitment or departure of key personnel;
- actual or anticipated changes in estimates as to financial results, development timelines or recommendations by securities analysts;
- variations in our financial results or those of companies that are perceived to be similar to us;
- general economic, industry and market conditions; and
- the other factors described in the section titled “Risk Factors” in this Prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference including our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Our Common Stock may trade at a substantial premium or discount to the value of the BERA tokens we hold, and our stock price may be more volatile than the price of BERA.

The market price of our Common Stock reflects many factors that do not affect the spot price of BERA and may therefore diverge materially positively or negatively from the per-share value of our BERA token holdings (net of cash, other assets and liabilities). These factors include, among others: our corporate-level expenses; taxes; the timing, size and pricing of equity or debt financings (including at-the-market offerings, equity line financings or convertible securities), equity awards and other sources of dilution; expectations about our future purchases or sales of BERA tokens or our onchain activities, including staking, validator or other DeFi initiatives; our liquidity and public float; differences in trading hours and market microstructure between our Common Stock and spot markets for BERA tokens; changes in index inclusion, analyst coverage or investor sentiment toward us as an operating company; our corporate governance, financial reporting, and any actual or perceived operational, custody, technology or regulatory risks specific to us; and broader equity-market conditions independent of digital asset markets. As a result, our Common Stock may trade at a premium or discount to the value of our BERA token holdings for extended periods and may be more volatile than the price of BERA tokens. Accordingly, investors could lose all or a substantial part of their investment even if the market price of BERA does not decline and may not benefit proportionately from increases in the market price of BERA tokens.

You may experience future dilution as a result of future equity or debt offerings.

In order to raise additional capital, we may in the future offer additional shares of Common Stock or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for our shares of Common Stock that could result in further dilution to our current stockholders or result in downward pressure on the price of our Common Stock. We may sell our shares of Common Stock or other securities in any offering at prices that are higher or lower than the prices paid by the Selling Stockholders, and the investors purchasing shares or other securities in the future could have rights superior to existing stockholders. Moreover, to the extent that we issue options or warrants to purchase, or securities convertible into or exchangeable for, our shares of Common Stock in the future and those options, warrants or other securities are exercised, converted or exchanged, stockholders may experience further dilution.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of Common Stock by the Selling Stockholders. All of the net proceeds from the sale of our Common Stock will go to the Selling Stockholders as described below in the sections entitled “Selling Stockholders” and “Plan of Distribution.” We have agreed to bear the expenses relating to the registration of the Securities for the Selling Stockholders.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The shares of common stock being offered by the Selling Stockholders consist of (i) the PIPE Shares, (ii) the Pre-Funded Warrant Shares and (iii) the Strategic Advisor Warrant Shares.

For additional information regarding the issuance of the PIPE Shares, the Pre-Funded Warrants and the Strategic Advisor Warrants in connection with the PIPE Offering, see the section “Prospectus Summary—Recent Developments” above. We are registering the resale of the PIPE Shares issued to the Selling Stockholders, the Pre-Funded Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Pre-Funded Warrants and the Strategic Advisor Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Strategic Advisor Warrants in order to permit such Selling Stockholders to offer the Securities for resale from time to time.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to our common stock. Generally, a person “beneficially owns” shares of our common stock if the person has or shares with others the right to vote those shares or to dispose of them, or if the person has the right to acquire voting or disposition rights within 60 days.

The table below lists the Selling Stockholders and other information regarding the beneficial ownership of the shares of common stock by each of the Selling Stockholders. This information has been obtained from the Selling Stockholders or in Schedules 13G or 13D and other public documents filed with the SEC. The second column lists the maximum number of shares being offered by the Selling Stockholders pursuant to this prospectus. The percentage of shares beneficially owned after the offering in the fourth column is based on 4,829,563 shares of common stock outstanding as of November 12, 2025, assuming exercise of the Pre-Funded Warrants and Strategic Advisor Warrants held by the Selling Stockholders on that date, without regard to any restrictions or limitations on exercise.

In accordance with the terms of the Subscription Agreements and the Strategic Advisor Agreement, this prospectus covers the resale of the sum of (i) the PIPE Shares, (ii) the maximum number of Pre-Funded Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Pre-Funded Warrants and (iii) the maximum number of Strategic Advisor Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Strategic Advisor Warrants. This maximum amount is determined as if the outstanding Pre-Funded Warrants and Strategic Advisor Warrants were exercised in full, without regard to any restriction or limitations on the exercise thereof. Under the terms of the Pre-Funded Warrants and Strategic Advisor Warrants, a Selling Stockholder may not exercise the Pre-Funded Warrants or Strategic Advisor Warrants, as applicable, to the extent such exercise would cause such Selling Stockholder, together with its affiliates and attribution parties, to beneficially own a number of shares of common stock which would exceed 4.99% or 9.99%, as applicable to each holder, of the number of shares of our common stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of common stock upon such applicable exercise). The number of shares in the second and third columns does not reflect this limitation. The Selling Stockholders may sell all, some or none of their shares in this offering. See the section “Plan of Distribution.”

Relationships with the Selling Stockholders

The Selling Stockholders have not had any material relationships with our officers, directors, or affiliates over the past three years, except (i) for the ownership of the Securities, (ii) as described in the section of this prospectus titled “Prospectus Summary — Recent Developments,” and (iii) as described in this section and in the table and footnotes above.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Stockholders, which as used herein includes donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling shares of common stock or interests in shares of common stock received after the date of this prospectus from a Selling Stockholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other transfer, may, from time to time, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of their shares of common stock or interests in shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The Selling Stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of shares or interests therein:

- distributions to members, partners, stockholders or other equityholders of the Selling Stockholders;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- short sales and settlement of short sales entered into after the effective date of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part;
- through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;
- broker-dealers may agree with the Selling Stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Stockholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending the list of Selling Stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as Selling Stockholders under this prospectus. The Selling Stockholders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the Selling Stockholders for purposes of this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of our common stock or interests therein, the Selling Stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The Selling Stockholders may also sell shares of our common stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The Selling Stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The aggregate proceeds to the Selling Stockholders from the sale of the common stock offered by them will be the purchase price of the common stock less discounts or commissions, if any. Each of the Selling Stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of common stock to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering. Upon any exercise of the pre-funded warrants or strategic advisor warrants by payment of cash, however, we will receive the exercise price of the Pre-Funded Warrants or Strategic Advisor Warrants.

The Selling Stockholders also may resell all or a portion of the shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, provided that they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of that rule, or another available exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act.

The Selling Stockholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the sale of the common stock or interests therein may be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act (it being understood that the Selling Stockholders shall not be deemed to be underwriters solely as a result of their participation in this offering). Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of the shares may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Selling stockholders who are “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

To the extent required, the shares of our common stock to be sold, the names of the Selling Stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agent, dealer or underwriter, and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the common stock may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the common stock may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

We have advised the Selling Stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the Selling Stockholders and their affiliates. In addition, to the extent applicable, we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the Selling Stockholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The Selling Stockholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Stockholders against liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act and state securities laws, relating to the registration of the shares offered by this prospectus.

We have agreed with the Selling Stockholders to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the registration statement of which this prospectus constitutes a part to become effective and to remain continuously effective until the earlier of the following: (i) Subscriber ceases to hold any Registrable Securities, as such term is defined in the Subscription Agreements, (ii) the date all Registrable Securities held by Subscriber may be sold without restriction under Rule 144 of the Securities Act, including without limitation, any volume and manner of sale restrictions which may be applicable to affiliates under Rule 144 and without the requirement for the Issuer to be in compliance with the current public information required under Rule 144(c)(1) or Rule 144(i)(2), as applicable, and (iii) three (3) years from the effective date of the Registration Statement.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) authorizes a court to award, or a corporation’s board of directors to grant, indemnity to directors and officers in terms sufficiently broad to permit such indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities, including reimbursement for expenses incurred, arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”).

Our Certificate of Incorporation provides for indemnification of our directors, officers, employees and other agents to the maximum extent permitted by the DGCL, and our Second Amended and Restated Bylaws (“Bylaws”) provide for indemnification of our directors, officers, employees and other agents to the maximum extent permitted by the DGCL.

In addition, we have entered into indemnification agreements with directors and officers containing provisions that are in some respects broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained in the DGCL. The indemnification agreements will require us, among other things, to indemnify our directors against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors and to advance their expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified, to the fullest extent permitted by law. We also intend to enter into indemnification agreements with any new directors and executive officers in the future.

Neither our Bylaws nor our Certificate of Incorporation includes any specific indemnification provisions for our officers or directors against liability under the Securities Act. Additionally, insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

We have purchased and intend to maintain insurance on behalf of us and any person who is or was a director or officer against any loss arising from any claim asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in that capacity, subject to certain exclusions and limits of the amount of coverage.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(a) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933,

(b) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement,

(c) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(a), (1)(b) and (1)(c) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(a) If the registrant is relying on Rule 430B:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(b) If the registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be a part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(a) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(b) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(c) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(d) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Boca Raton, State of Florida, on November 21, 2025.
